Information on the area of research:

I hereby confirm, that I will use the films provided by TIB exclusively for my own scientific purposes in the course of my scientific research.

Information on the purpose:

The material is used for scientific purposes, if it serves ones own scientific purposes (incl. research, presenting, teaching) and commercial interests are not pursued. TIB reserves the right to not make the film available, if the specified purpose of use does not constitute scientific use or a subject-specific interest in the content, the production technique, historical origins or similar topics in relation to the films does not exist.

German copyright law applies, the copyright notices must be adhered to. Especially the publication, public performance, distribution to third parties and online-provision via the internet is not permitted.
